Coloratura Soprano

The young German-Ukrainian coloratura soprano Maryna Zubko graduated her master's degree in opera at the National Academy of Music of Ukraine Pyotr Tchaikovsky with honours as well as her concert exam at the University of Music and Performing Arts Frankfurt am Main. As a stipendiary of the International Vocal Studio Berlin under the patronage of Eva Wagner-Pasquier, she was mentored by Césaire Colona. Since 2018, she has been perfecting her vocal art with Elena Pankratova. Master classes with Ivan Konsulov, Helmut Deutsch, Claudia Eder and Mariella Devia completed her education.

In recent years, Maryna Zubko has won numerous prizes and awards, including the Song Prize at the 9th International Lions Singing Competition of the Immling Festival and the 1st Prize and Audience Award at the 32nd International Meistersinger Competition in Neustadt an der Weinstraße. She has also received scholarships from the Richard Wagner Society (Ulm), the Frankfurt Bach Concerts, the Peter Fuld Foundation and the Da Ponte Foundation, among others.

Since the 2018/19 season, the singer has been engaged in the ensemble at the Theatre Ulm. She has also appeared as a soloist in a number of opera productions and projects at the Music Theatre in the Ruhr Gelsenkirchen, the Staatstheater Darmstadt, the Theatre Heidelberg, the Theatre Coburg, the Theatre Pforzheim, the Theatre Regensburg and the Immling Festival. In concert, Maryna Zubko has performed with the German State Philharmonic Orchestra of Rhineland-Palatinate and the Johann Strauss Orchestra Frankfurt, among others.

In the 2021/2022 season, the versatile soprano was awarded the Ulm Theatre Prize for her roles of ZERBINETTA, GILDA and ROSINA and was honored by the SÜDWEST PRESSE as „The Singer of the Season“. In the 2022/2023 season she was hailed by press and audience for the roles of OLYMPIA, ANTONIA and GIULIETTA in »Les contes d'Hoffmann«. And in the 2023/24 season, she had the greatest success with the title role in Donizetti's »ANNA BOLENA«. Her interests include works from the baroque to the modern, also in the song and oratorio repertoire.

The soprano works with conductors such as Felix Bender, Panagiotis Papadopoulos, Timo Handschuh, Michael Weiger, Nikolai Petersen, Levente Török, Walter Althammer, Cornelia von Kerssenbrock, Evan Alexis Christ, Otto Honeck and Volker Christ as well as with producers such as Hinrich Horstkotte, Anthony Pilavachi, Dietrich Hilsdorf, Ansgar Haag, Kay Metzger, Benjamin Künzel and Ludwig Baumann.

Press Reviews (Choice)

Anna Bolena:

DER NEUE MERKER 04/2024

In the Ukrainian singer Maryna Zubko, the ideal cast has been found. She effortlessly manages the high notes, has no coordination problems, easily manages the arioso passages and lends her character the passion and dramaturgy required. She presents her perfect bel canto soprano with her mad aria, in which she has to go through three phases at once – love, prayer and anger.

ORPHEUS 02/2024

Magnificent performance: Maryna Zubko in the title role. She has at her command everything that makes an outstanding bel canto soprano. Purity of tone. Smoothness. Piano culture. Fade in and out. Furor. Great. Any state theatre and its audience would be delighted with her.

Les contes d'Hoffmann: SCHWÄBISCHE ZEITUNG

Maryna Zubko takes on all four female roles and masters the enormous vocal and acting challenge with an agile soprano and effortlessly controlled top notes. She is brilliantly convincing as the doll Olympia, touching as the young Antonia who dies through her singing, with seductive tones as the dangerous courtesan and finally sovereign as the enervated rushing off Stella.

Rigoletto: AUGSBURGER ALLGEMEINE

Maryna Zubko shined in the role of Gilda as both singer and actor, singing with dreamlike confidence – all the while, singing in a wheelchair or lying on the floor.

Il barbiere di Siviglia: NEU-ULMER ZEITUNG

Maryna Zubko deserved the highest praise in the role of the cunning Rosina, who was anything but at the mercy of the men who want to marry her... and truly delivered her coloratura on stage, while giving comedic facial expressions and gestures as a multi-faceted and lively Rosina, causing the audience to break into spontaneous applause again and again.

Ariadne auf Naxos: SÜDWEST PRESSE

Spectacular coloratura! Maryna Zubko earned well-deserved applause for her sensational coloratura in her role of Zerbinetta – not with a chirping carelessness, but solid virtuosity.

Lucia di Lammermoor: SpaZz Magazin

And above it all floats Maryna Zubko, who celebrates a vocal firework as Lucia. A Lucia that is simply breathtaking!

Die Fledermaus: Pro Ópera AC

Soprano Zubko as Adele was vocally the highlight of the evening. Even though convincing as the fun-loving Adele, her voice was more the Rosalinde-type. Her full, warm soprano voice, impressive high notes, great musicality and clear diction, had the audience giving fervent applause and shouting many "Bravas!".
